NATION'S PRESENT CRISIS REQUIRES FULL DUTY OF ALL

SECRETARY McADOO POINTS OUT THE OBJECT OF WAR SAVINGS AND THIRD LIBERTY LOAN.

LOAN CAMPAIGN INTENSIVE

The Work of Neither War Savings Nor Loan Organizations Should Be Permitted to Overlap.

By WILLIAM G. McADOO,
Secretary of the Treasury.

To the Executives and Workers of the Liberty Loan and War Savings Campaigns:

As the time for the opening of the campaign for the Third Liberty Loan approaches, it seems advisable to set forth in a definite way a plan by which the activities of these two organizations shall be brought into un-ison for the period of this campaign.

The War Savings Organization should have for its primary object the education of our one hundred million of people to the idea that at this time of war and national crisis the practice of thrift is not alone a matter of personal wisdom or advantage, but is vitally necessary to the welfare of the nation. The United States government, in its prosecution of the war, requires the use of the products of labor to the extent of billions of dollars per annum, while at the same time it has been necessary to remove from productive employment over one million five hundred thousand men.
This demand for material cannot be met if the normal needs of our population are continued. To a reduction of these needs the chief activities of the War Savings Organization should be directed, and as a complement to this work the savings thus effected, when translated into terms of money, should be invested in U. S. government securities.

On the other hand, the Liberty Loan Organizations are confronted with a problem of raising within a short space of time billions of dollars to meet the immediate requirements of the Treasury Department. Insofar as these monetary requirements can be met out of savings, the situation is thereby benefited, but in any case the money must be raised, and raised quickly. The campaign must therefore be intensive and, while pointing out the necessity of self-denial in expenditures, must be directed toward the securing of subscriptions as well as the raising of savings. The needed amount must be raised, even though present savings are not sufficient and even though it becomes necessary to pledge future savings through the use of credit facilities.

In the coming Liberty Loan drive, therefore, the War Savings Organization should continue their efforts in the formation of War Savings Societies, educational work in the schools and general thrift propaganda. Their actual selling organization should, however, be combined and co-ordinated with that of the Liberty Loan Organization to the end that during this period sales of government securities, both Liberty Loan Bonds and War Savings Stamps, should be made in the largest amounts possible to each individual buyer, but the purchase of Liberty Loan Bonds rather than War Savings Stamps should, during this period, be the main object. To this end, during this period, all donated advertising space should be devoted to Liberty Loan offerings.

The first effort of both the Liberty Loan and War Savings organizations during the coming drive should be to sell Liberty Loan Bonds, and no member of the War Savings Organization should endeavor to divert a purchaser of Liberty Loan Bonds to the purchase of War Savings Stamps. On the other hand, there are persons who are unable to buy Liberty Loan Bonds, and all these persons should be urged to buy War Savings Stamps.

With regard to partial payment subscriptions to Liberty Loan Bonds, these should be encouraged, but where employers of labor or others have formed efficient War Savings Societies which are actually obtaining systematic and adequate subscriptions to War Savings Stamps this work should not be interfered with by an endeavor to supersede the War Savings Societies by the introduction of the partial payment plan for subscriptions to Liberty Loan Bonds. Such War Savings Societies should make every possible endeavor to promote the sale not only of War Savings Stamps but Liberty Loan Bonds during the coming drive.

The loyal army of workers in both these organizations must realize that they are working for a common cause, though by different methods; that each is a part of the Treasury Department force, and that each is under Treasury Department control.

Complete harmony and unity of purpose helps both organizations in the attainment of the purpose of each—the successful financing of the war on a sound basis. We must have complete and cordial co-operation between the two organizations, and I am sure that I may count upon every member of each organization for that kind of patriotic work.

I ask that these suggestions be carried into effect both in letter and in spirit.

A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering. Says
Cardui Made Her Well.

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work."

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep. I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head.

I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. I took three bottles in all, and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent, for I have never had any headache since taking Cardui.

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui.
It did wonders for me."

Try Cardui for your troubles—made from medicinal ingredients recommended in medical books as being of benefit in female troubles, and 40 years of use has proven that the books are right. Begin taking Cardui today. NC-134

CONFEDERATE VETERANS AT TULSA IN SEPTEMBER.

(By International News Service.)

Tulsa, Okla., April 22.—Definite decision has been reached to hold the annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans here in September.
For two months there had been a question as to whether the reunion should be held this year because of congested railroad traffic. Director General McAdoo, however, granted a one-cent rate and has promised ample railway equipment to carry veterans to the reunion from all over the

MAN HAVING SMALLEST FEET IN ARMY FOUND.

Camp Meade, Md., April 22.— Fighting men at Camp Meade take due pride in their celebrities, but there is one distinctive man here who hates to be told about his distinction. It is Arthur L. Bunn, of the Twenty-eighth Engineers.

Bunn is distinguished as the man with the smallest foot in the whole United States Army. Socks size three and a half fit Bunn, and his feet have plenty of room to spare in the smallest shoes the "Q. M." issues.

THIRD BATTLE OF YPRES DESCRIBED BY SERGEANT OF CANADIAN ARTILLERY.

(By International News Service.)
Chicago, April 19.—The thrilling eye-witness story of the third battle of Ypres was told here by Sergeant Reginald Grant, of the First Canadian Field Artillery.

"We were in Sanctuary woods about a mile southeast of town. We were the sacrifice battery and were to stay behind and cover the retreat of our comrades if there should be a retreat. Well, our boys went out of the trench and were met by the Germans in mass formation.

"They were smothered—but not before they had wrecked frightful havoc. They died to a man. The Huns came on yelling with all their lungs and as they neared we blew great holes in that formation.
But we didn't stop them. They came on running and yelling like fiends of Hell.

"Our ammunition was gone. We grabbed parts of the guns and our rifles, and retreated with the rest, stopping now and then to drop one or two of the enemy.

"The battery to our right didn't have a chance to use all their shells.
The Boche was upon them too quickly with smoke shells that started great fires. The boys there were burned alive.

"Yes, they are fighters, the Germans. But so are the British."

STRATEGY.

An ancient duck named Fabius was noted as a pike.

He dilled and he dallied till his soldiers hoped he'd choke; He got the goat of Hannibal by pulling such delay.

He'd just withdraw his army, but was always in the way;

They called him yellow, freak and nut but to this wild contention He'd say, procrastination is the mother of invention.

What Quintus did in A. U. C. or B. C. umptydum

Both Foch and Haig are doing now, and both are on the jump.
Though oft it seems it isn't time for paens and for carols.

We know the chance is coming and the Hun will get both barrels;

When Uncle Sam is ready, then we'll praise this wise abstention.

We'll know procrastination was the mother of invention.
